

Never Eat Shredded Wheat

Where in the world?

Never eat
shredded wheat

At the end of this theme, children should...

- Know simple compass directions (North, South, East and West) and locational language (near/far)
 - Know that there are seasonal changes in the UK
 - Know how to investigate daily weather patterns
 - Know how to investigate daily weather patterns across the UK
 - Know how the weather changes with each season and how this affects key physical features
 - Know that some types of weather can be dangerous
-
- Know how to create a stable structure
 - Know how to use tools and equipment accurately to make part of a structure
 - Know how to join parts of a structure
 - Know how to evaluate parts of a structure.

enjoy

Learning Environment Opportunities

Immersive Room - look at weather around the
UK/World

Studio graphics - World
Map - compass

Now Press Play
- Maps

Connections

inspire Suggestion

Get outside! Label NSEW on the playground or MUGA. Can the children follow your directions? Move 3 steps north, 5 steps west etc. Can they give each other directions? Could they direct you to reach a target?

achieve Question

How are the seasons different? Draw and label the differences.

COMPASS DIRECTIONS

DAILY WEATHER PATTERNS - LOCAL

SEASONAL CHANGES - UK

Never eat shredded wheat

DAILY WEATHER PATTERNS - UK

WOODLAND VIEW PRIMARY SCHOOL

SEASONAL WEATHER

DANGEROUS WEATHER

OUR LEARNING JOURNEY
Geography/DT

STABLE STRUCTURES

USING TOOLS

JOINING PARTS

Connections

EVALUATION

inspireenjoyachieve

SEEDS

PARTS OF A PLANT

PLANTS AND THEIR ENVIRONMENT

SCIENCE LEARNING JOURNEY

DECIDUOUS AND EVERGREEN

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

PLANT GROWTH

Plants

THEME VOCABULARY

Geography

north
south east
west
near far
season
autumn
spring
summer
winter
weather

DT

base
centre
axle rotate strong stable
weak middle wind
test

Science

seed
plant
stem
petal
deciduous evergreen
fruit
vegetable

